CANTOR ARTS CENTER & RODIN SCULPTURE GARDEN

COST: Free

Thanks to one of the Cantor's curators, the CAC houses the largest collection of sculptures by Auguste Rodin outside of Paris and the Soumaya Museum in Mexico City.

The special exhibit showing at the Cantor at the time of the conference is "Second Nature: Photography in the Age of the Anthropocene," which explores the complexities of this proposed new age: vanishing ice, rising waters, and increasing resource extraction, as well as the deeply rooted and painful legacies of colonialism, forced climate migration, and socio-environmental trauma.

HOOVER TOWER AND EXHIBITION

COST: $8 for access to observation deck

Visitors can view portions of the collection in the ground floor exhibition galleries and see the historic Belgian carillon on the 14th floor observation deck, which also offers panoramic views of the surrounding area.
